It is also well worth Googling, “October is the month of the Rosary” where there are very helpful images and prayerful material.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: World Mission Sunday is your chance to support missionaries and the Church proclaiming the Gospel of peace to those who suffer around the world. Missio is the Pope's official charity for overseas missions and is part of the worldwide network of Pontifical Mission Societies. Donation envelopes are available at the back of the church. Your donation will help fund the spread of peace through faith and outreach projects, supporting Catholic missionaries and building new churches.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

22nd October 2017

Dear Parishioners,

“Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God”, Jesus said (Matt. 22:15-21). The people of the Holy Land hated the Romans and Caesar who oppressed and taxed them. Jesus would be popular if he had told people not to pay taxes to Caesar, but the attempt to entrap him by forcing him to choose between Roman rule and popular opinion failed. He could see the risks of a rebellion bringing about his own destruction - which is what the Pharisees wanted. If he told people to pay taxes to the Romans, he would be seen as collaborating with the enemy and becoming unpopular. Jesus' answer shows that all of us have a duty to contribute to government for the common good, and also to be answerable to God.

We see Jesus paying the religious or Temple tax when he told Peter to “cast a line into the lake, catch a fish and to use the shekel you will find in its mouth to pay the tax for you and me”(Matthew 17:27). Jesus was questioned on an issue to do with earthly power, but he pointed out that people must answer to God, from whom all power comes. The phrase, “We don't do God” describes an attitude in political and public life of no accountability to God. Those from whom advice is sought on moral or ethical issues seem to be drawn mostly from a secular or God-less background and some say that there is little point in making representations to MP's on moral or ethical issues do with human life or dignity. Yet, we Christians should still inform and challenge those who make public policies and legislate for our society. The fundamental principles of humanity in the Judeo/Christian tradition are judicious and still valid today, and deserving of respect. Those who reject them as obsolete ultimately harm human dignity and society rather than enrich and enhance it.

St Thomas More as Lord Chancellor, was a man of virtue and conscience, who knew he was answerable to God as well as to the king - he said he was “the king's good servant, but God's first”. “More offers us a model we yearn for but too often lack, in our own daily choices and public leaders. Public service is about shaping society to right moral principles” (Render to Caesar by Charles Chaput). Yet we and our leaders do not always recognise we are answerable to God as well as people.
May God give us the spirit of wisdom, to make the right decisions, Fr John

THANK YOU FROM FR GERALD GOSTLING: “I very much enjoyed my memorable visit to Epping on Sunday and the marvellous people at Mass. Thank you for your welcome and the good people of the parish for the gift of £2000 for the twinned parish of Thistle Grove and Lebohang. I have already contacted the office in Dundee Diocese about the arrival of this money which will be transferred from Brentwood Diocese. When the donation comes I will personally present it to the Parish communities and send some photos to you. I will also take photographs of what the money is used for as they have a project that has care for a large number of children. I was actually part of establishing this project in 2005 responding to a huge need and there are many volunteers doing extraordinary work with orphans, needy and vulnerable children. This gift will be a great help to the people in those communities who will very much appreciate the generosity of your parishioners. I very much remember Fr James who is keeping an eye on us from the Communion of Saints. Thank you for his memorial card and the card of the stained glass window. God bless, Fr Gerald.”

REMEMBERING & PRAYING FOR OUR DEAD DURING NOVEMBER

It is part of our Christian tradition to celebrate, remember and pray for our dead during the month of November. On All Saints Day, Wednesday 1st November, we celebrate the Saints in Heaven, amongst whom are members of our family, friends and neighbours; good people who now rejoice and share in the glory of God in heaven. They are amongst the saints of the Church and the world, in whom we glory and celebrate on All Saints Day.

On Thursday, 2nd November, All Souls Day, we pray for those in our Parish who died during the past year. On that day at Masses, at 10.00am and 8.00pm, we will remember and pray for those in our community who have been called by the Lord from this life to eternal life. Since you have been bereaved during that time, we especially invite you to Mass on that day, when we will remember and pray for your loved one by name.

On Sunday, 5th November at 3.00pm, we will have a Service in Epping Cemetery, when we will remember and pray for deceased parishioners, including Fr John Ryan a former Parish Priest of Epping, who have been interred there. Prayers will be offered asking God's blessing on the graves as we walk around the cemetery at the end of the service.

On Sunday, 19th November at 3.00pm, we will have the Annual Bereavement Service, here in Church. This is arranged for people who have lost loved ones, spouses, children, parents, relatives or friends, whether recently or some time ago. It includes hymns, prayers, readings and remembrance by name of loved ones who have died, and lighting a candle before the altar in their memory. This symbolises the fact that all who die in Christ are called by him to go into his light and presence, for he is "The Light of the World". After the Service you are invited to join us with friends for light refreshments in the Church hall.

During November we pray daily at every Mass for all whose names are in our Register of the Dead, which is placed at our altar, and also for all whose names are on the Prayer Lists, that we place at the altar. You can write the names of your loved ones, relatives or friends on the list in the Church and return it in the envelope provided to the Priest's House.

We pray that at times of bereavement that the Lord sends his Holy Spirit, the Comforter, to console and comfort all who mourn at a sad and difficult time.
