FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT & CHRISTMAS B 25 December 2017

Dear Parishioners,

“The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel, which means God with us” (Matt.1:18-25) fulfils Isaiah's prophesy (Is.7:14). In celebrating Jesus' birth of at Christmas, we show “God with us”. God became man in Jesus to bring God to us, and bring us to God. Mary, the mother of Jesus, was first to welcome him when she accepted God's message from the angel Gabriel by saying, “I am the servant of the Lord, let it be done unto me according to your word”(Luke 1:38). Joseph, her husband, a man of faith, welcomed the Word of God and chose to obey it in his relationship with Mary. The challenge for us, as for Mary and Joseph, is to live our relationships and life according to God's plan, and put his will before our own. By living according to God's will, great things can be achieved in and through us, which benefit others, as happened with Mary and Joseph.

Many families in our parish are blessed with the gift of children and new life. When we look at the face of a new-born child, we are also looking at the face of Jesus. God's glory was made visible to us in the face of Jesus and in the face of every child. His glory is perfectly reflected to us in the face of Jesus, who became man like us in all things, but sin. He took our frail human nature to share with us the divine nature of God, and enable us to draw close to God and become his people.

Christmas, when we celebrate the birth of Jesus, has a message of peace from God to people of goodwill. God places in human hearts a longing and desire for peace and reconciliation at Christmas. In this season of peace, he calls to heal divisions, abandon hatred and make a conversion to love. Christmas can be difficult where people are troubled by divisions, un-forgiveness or hostilities. When families come together at Christmas they have a sense that God intends us to be united in love and go forward together as people freed from hurts. So, whilst a message of peace to people of goodwill was given over two thousand years ago at Christmas, on the birth of the Prince of Peace, it is a message which is addressed to each one of us every day by God who loves us, and wants us to have reconciliation and peace.

May the Lord bless you and your families with peace & joy at Christmas. Fr John
