The Immaculate Conception

Fourth Sunday of Lent

15th March 2015

Dear friends,

What makes the Christian gospel so daringly different from any secular thought process is the concept of grace. One of the maxims of the world which says it all is: there is no such thing as a free lunch: all human dealings have strings attached. Grace, by contrast is freely given; it cannot be merited and it cannot be earned and this is emphatically emphasised in today's Scriptures. The nature of God is defined by self giving love. To say that God is gracious is to proclaim that God is unwavering in his love and mercy towards us despite all our waywardness and indifference. God is love, made manifest in the gift of Jesus his son. Grace is the word we use to describe God's infinite love worked out in us. To receive the grace of God is to be invited into God's own self. Essential to the scriptural notion of grace is forgiveness of sins. The Church stresses the importance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation during Lent precisely because she wants us all to respond eagerly to the free gift offered to us. The love of God does not invite abstract notional responses; it invites passion and love in return. A humble confession of our sins opens the floodgates of divine mercy. Please use the opportunity provided by tomorrow evening's Service of Penance and Reconciliation or at least ensure that you celebrate the Sacrament in good time for Easter.

God bless you all,
Fr James

CAR PARKING ON GOOD FRIDAY. In view of the issue of Parking Tickets to some parishioners last Good Friday afternoon, the authorities have been contacted exhaustively to see if there could be some relaxation in the car parking regulations for those attending the 3.00pm Good Friday Service. IT IS NOT POSSIBLE, so would parishioners please note that they could receive a Parking Ticket if they park on the roads around the church whilst attending the service on Good Friday afternoon. It is suggested that parking in the Stonards Hill, Cottis Lane or Bakers Lane Car Parks could be better options.
