The Immaculate Conception

Palm Sunday

29th March 2015

Dear Friends,

Palm Sunday introduces us to the high point of the Christian calendar, Holy Week, For believers, no other time of the year is more important. Today, as we hold aloft our blessed palms, we recall Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem to cries of 'Hosanna'. But the mood quickly changes with the dramatic reading of the Passion. 'Christ was humbler yet, even to accepting death on the Cross' and it is for us to bend our knees humbly and to proclaim him as Lord.

On Maundy Thursday evening, we shall recall how Jesus bent his knees in humble service as he washed his disciples' feet. We too are called to humble service.

The Passion is read once more on Good Friday afternoon when we venerate the Cross and once more bend our knee.

All the liturgical drama of Holy Week comes to a climax on Holy Saturday evening when we celebrate the Lord's Resurrection. This year, the Vigil will be simpler than usual, as there is no-one to be baptised or received into the Church. However, the baptismal waters are blessed and we renew the high promises of our baptism by which we reject all that is alien to God and renew our commitment to Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I wish you all a faith-filled Holy Week.

God bless you all,
Fr James
