The Immaculate Conception

Easter Sunday

5th April 2015

Dear Friends,

No other feast of the Christian calendar, not even Christmas, is surrounded with such solemnity as Easter Day. After the sobriety of Holy Week, the Church throughout the world erupts with joy: all its resources are employed to proclaim the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus from the dead. Those of a superficial frame of mind try to explain it away with a variety of theories; some would call it the wishful thinking of the first disciples. However, Mary of Magdala, and then Peter and John, witnessed an empty tomb and then witnessed our Saviour himself. Christ is truly risen: this has been the faith of the Church from its beginning.

Today we renew the high promises of Baptism, renouncing all that is alien to God and affirming, yet again, our faith in the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In the days of Lent, the Gloria and Alleluia were absent from the liturgy: now they return with vigour. We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song.

The comfort of the Resurrection is of particular relevance to me this year. With the sudden death of Fr Denis Hall last week, I mourn the loss of a third priest-friend within a few months. He and I were in Primary School together, at Hornchurch, back in the forties. As Parish Priest of Upton Park, he lived just long enough to celebrate his Golden Jubilee, just 3 months after I celebrated my own. He was an outstanding pastor and will be sadly missed. May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

I wish you all a blessed Easter.

Fr James
