EIGHT SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME A 26th February 2017

My dear friends,

“People must think of us as Christ’s servants, stewards entrusted with the mysteries of God” (1Corinthians 4:1-5). St Paul, writing this letter, wanted the first Christians to recognise that they had been given a very precious gift of faith, that was the foundation of their relationship with God, and given to them through Jesus Christ. In our Diocese, at present, we have the “Stewards of the Gospel” programme, that is designed to help us appreciate the gift of faith given to us, and how we protect and nurture it. Like the first Christians, we too are called to serve Christ, and we do so by honouring his holy name, and by worshipping him in private and public.

Our relationship with God is given to us by and through Christ. He shows us that God loves us and tells us, “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16). When a person is Baptised, child or adult, it is like an outpouring of God’s love on that person. Just as a couple commit themselves to each other in love in making their marriage vows, so too in Baptism God commits himself to us in love, and we in theory, if not always in practice commit ourselves to him in love. God’s intimate love for his people is expressed in maternal terms when the Lord says, “Even if a mother forget her baby at the breast, or fail to cherish the child of her womb, I will never forget you” (Isaiah 49:1-4). The most profound thing we can receive or offer to anyone is love, and it is first of all God’s gift people in their heart.

God’s love for people is also shown in the way he cares for us and for creation. Do we recognise God’s creative love in the world, in nature, in communities and in individuals? If we fail to see it, then there may be a spiritual blindness in our lives, and we may need to ask the Lord to give us a gift of faith that enable us to see his glory and presence. Jesus tells his disciples and us to trust in the providence and love of God, so that might live free from worry and anxiety (Matthew 6:24-34).

Lent begins this week on Ash Wednesday. In this season, Jesus calls us to walk with him on a spiritual journey, and share with him his time in the wilderness, his glory on the mountain of transfiguration, his triumphant entry to Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, and his sufferings and death on the Cross in Holy Week.

May we use this holy season to grow in love for God and for people. Fr John
