WEEKDAY MASS TIMES: Bishop Alan asked priests, some time ago, to consider having a regular weekday evening Mass in parishes for people who are not able to attend morning Mass due to work or other commitments. Our weekday Masses at 9am are too early for some retired people and parents on the school run etc. I would like to know what people think on having Mass later than 9am on some or all weekdays and especially if you would in fact attend a later Mass. Fr John

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT YEAR A

5th March 2017

This weekend and for the next few weeks, the whole tone of our liturgy changes as we embark upon a period of self-examination of our relationship with God.

Although we may 'do our best' to live a good life, during Lent we are called to be even more attentive to recognise the ways in which we may offend God by what we do, say and think. Even small indiscretions need addressing, alongside any more significant ways which cause his displeasure and our shame. Lent is a time for renewed prayer and reflection, which will bring us closer to our loving, merciful God....but it does need our wholehearted commitment to show our love for God by rejecting the interference of Satan in our lives – and we know that he is the master of deception, distraction and temptation. Leading a good life is a challenge for us!!.

In lovingly following Jesus through Lent, we are invited to let go of the power of sin in our lives and to learn to live by another, much better, strength. This strength will be found through the total reliance on God's saving love and the presence of the Holy Spirit in all the decisions we make. We can begin to discover this strength by meditating on the Creation Story and its teaching of how good God is, as he guides all things in life. We can reflect on how easy it is to choose to impose our own will and desire for glory, status and goods, rather than accepting a humble and wise recognition of the good in others, and doing all we can to enhance that goodness, beauty and truth in the lives of other people. We will come to realise that seeking the good of God's entire family, rather than trying to grab all that we can for ourselves, will open up the possibility of seeing God's presence everywhere, in every situation. Then we can live for the praise and honour of God, for the respect and enhancement of every human being and for the dignity of our own status as disciples of Jesus Christ and sharers in his risen life.

Let us pray that we may all have a fruitful Lenten journey, as individuals and as a Parish community.

God Bless you all.

Deacon Duncan

Monday 20th March, Dr Charlie O'Donnell FRCP, Consultant on Emergency Medicine & Intensive Care, will speak on "Being a Catholic Doctor in 21st Century England & staying true to the Catholic Faith - lessons for a lay Catholic".

This course of Lent Lectures has been advertised locally and around the Diocese. We have excellent speakers and there will be opportunities for questions. We hope many will be interested in these contemporary issues. All welcome and admission is free.
