EASTER SUNDAY – THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD 16 April 2017

My dear People,

“The angel told the women “Do not be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen” (Matt.28:1-10). The Gospels show that the disciples and friends of Jesus were in a state of fear and shock after his arrest, sufferings and death on the Cross. They had not believed his prophesy that he would suffer and die and rise from the dead on the third day. At Easter, we rejoice and profess our faith in this great mystery, that “Christ, has died and Christ is risen”. Christ’s resurrection gives us faith and hope of new life in and with God. When we pray as individuals, or come together as a Christian community, we celebrate the resurrection of Christ from the dead and we know that he the risen Lord is with us. So too he raises people up to the new life of grace here on earth and gives them promise of eternal life with God in heaven.

The angel told the women at the tomb “Do not be afraid”. That same message of hope is held out for us as we live through the difficulties and anxieties of life, and especially the fear of death. The Gospels show Jesus accompanying his disciples on the road to Emmaus on the day of his resurrection, “but something prevented them from recognising him”. He appeared to Mary Magdalene at the tomb, but she did not recognise him. The Risen Christ is our unseen and silent companion on our journey through life for he is with us “always, even to the end of time”. Our eyes, like the eyes of his friends, are not always open to recognise or see him for it is only with the eyes of faith that we can know or recognise his presence.

When the host and chalice are raised up at Mass, our prayer, should be like that of Thomas, who professed his faith in the risen Christ, having at first refused to believe in the resurrection, “my Lord and my God”.

I thank everyone who has given of their time and talents, so generously, in many ways, for a worthy celebration of the Sacred Mysteries in Holy Week.

May Christ, our risen Lord and Saviour, bless you and your families, and all our visitors, with joy and peace this Easter. Fr John

QUEEN OF HEAVEN (Prayed instead of the Angelus during Easter)

V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.

R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.

V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia.

R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech you, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life.
Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
