FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT (Year A) 18th December 2016

Dear Friends,

The angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins” (Matthew 1:18-24). On Mothering Sunday in Lent we honour and pray for God’s blessing on mothers, as they share the dignity the Holy Mother, Mary, had in conceiving Jesus, her son. On this Sunday before Christmas the Church asks us to honour and pray for Expectant Mothers, that God the Father may bless and protect them as they carry the child in their womb, just as the Blessed Mother did, with her child Jesus, 2000 years ago.

This Gospel reading shows us that the life and relationship of Mary and Joseph was complex and not free from difficulties, but beset with the troubles which affect many couples today. “Joseph, being a man of honour, decided to divorce Mary informally” when he found that she had conceived a child that was not his”. When a word came to him from the Lord, albeit by an angel in a dream, he was guided by that message and obeyed it. This sets an example for couples who are troubled by difficulties and all sorts of complexities in their relationship(s). It shows the importance of seeking a word from the Lord and being guided by it, in way that leads us to live our life in accordance with God’s plan. Many people today are tempted, like Joseph, to walk away from difficulties and problems rather than face up to the realities and struggle on with the help of God’s grace, in faithfulness to their vows and responsibilities.

At Christmas next weekend, we celebrate the birth of Jesus, our Lord, and Saviour of the world. We can be so preoccupied and hectic with material things in this season that the reason for Christmas can be overshadowed or forgotten in preparations. Thinking about and praying the Joyful mysteries of the Rosary can help focus on the origins of our faith centred on Christ’s birth. Let us prepare to welcome him into our lives, our hearts and homes at Christmas by turning to him in prayer this week, and asking him to come to us in love and save us from our self-centredness and sins.
God bless & keep you, and especially expectant mothers, safe in his care. Fr John
