SECOND SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (A)

15th January 2017

My dear friends,

“When all the people had been baptised, and while Jesus, after his own Baptism was at prayer, heaven opened and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily shape, like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on you’” (Luke 3:15-22). When Jesus was praying, after his Baptism by St John the Baptist he was anointed with power by the Holy Spirit. This was to strengthen him for the forty days of testing in the desert and prepare him for ministry. God the Father proclaimed, “This is my beloved Son, on whom my favour rests”. The three persons in the Holy Trinity are in perfect communion at Jesus’ Baptism and he is united with his Father and the Holy Spirit. He was anointed as the Christ, to save people and baptise them with the Holy Spirit.

Baptism is the foundation of our life of faith after birth, for it begins the life of grace in communion with God. In Baptism, God chooses us as his beloved son or daughter and gives us a personal relationship with himself. At Jesus’ Baptism, God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit were present in communion; when we are Baptised, in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, The Holy Trinity is present to us too, and God brings us into communion with himself and his people in the Church, which is the Christian Community, the Body of Christ.

Jesus was anointed with the power of the Holy Spirit and called to mission at his Baptism. Anointed with the power of the Holy Spirit, we too are called to our special vocation or mission by God at our Baptism and in Confirmation. Today as we renew our Baptism promises at Mass, we renounce all that is not of God and choose to live in the love of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. At Baptism we read from 1 John 1:1-3, which speaks of God’s love for us: “Think of the love God the Father has lavished on us by letting us be called God’s children and that is what we are”. In response to God choosing and anointing us, let us commit ourselves anew to follow the example of Jesus, his beloved Son, and decide to live in his love and way, rather than following a worldly or self-centred love.

May the Lord bless and renew in us the graces of Baptism. Fr John

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION: The next session for the children will take place this coming Tuesday 17th January at 5.45pm in the Hall.

MISSIO (RED BOX) COLLECTION: The collections for the second half of 2016 have now been counted and amount to £679.17. The total for 2016 amounts to £1037.93 – a wonderful contribution!!. Red boxes for parishioners who handed them in for counting are now in the church porch for collection with the collector's name.
